1 Affected product versions

Product Name	Successor Product
SARA-R410M-01B	SARA-R410M-02B

2 Reason for discontinuation

The affected product version uses a software baseline that is no longer supported by the chipset supplier; as such, the product is no longer supportable by u-blox. The successor product SARA-R410M-02B uses a software baseline that is supported, includes more functionality, and is available in Initial Production. All active customers have moved to this latest version. Therefore the SARA-R410M-01B has been discontinued with immediate effect.

3 Customer impact and recommended action

- The successor product is pin-to-pin compatible with its predecessor.
- This end-of-life product cannot be upgraded with FW intended for the successor product.
- Putting successor products into use requires the associated approvals and certifications.
- SARA-R410M-02B includes the same feature set as SARA-R410M-01B, and includes many new features and certifications. For more information, see the Information Note [4].

4 Schedule
